Fall Auction is Tomorrow!

Tomorrow morning is our annual FALL AUCTION! Thank you to those of you who have already helped out in some way by volunteering your time or dropping off food for the auction. Those of you who will be helping out tomorrow, please keep in mind that we open our doors at 7:00 AM, and should be wrapping it up late afternoon. Please remember to bring your students in their blue ECS t-shirts!

ECS T-Shirts

The students were given free ECS t-shirts yesterday to wear to school today and to the auction tomorrow. Please refer to the message sent-out via Schoolworx regarding attire guidelines.

Long's Donuts Fundraiser!

Good news! We have decided to extend our cut-off to turn in order forms/payment to this coming Monday, 10/7. Orders can be picked up on Wednesday, October 9 at dismissal or at the Emmanuel Baptist Temple evening service, which starts at 7:00 PM.

Discount Cards are Here!

Discount cards are going home today! We are also sending home a flyer explaining the details about the fundraiser. Check out the back of the flyer for information on prizes for selling your cards! Each student is responsible for turning in the money for 10 cards.

2-Hour Delay on Monday

Due to the tiring weekend with our Auction on Saturday, ECS will not begin until 10:00 AM on Monday, 10/7. The earliest time for arrivals is 9:30 AM. The building will not be open before then. Enjoy your late morning! (The buses will not be running for us on Monday morning due to the time change, so parents of students who ride the buses will be responsible for transportation on Monday, 10/7. The buses will be able to take students home after school.)

Grandparents Day

On Friday, October 25, we will be hosting Grandparents Day at ECS! Invitations for this event are going home today. They are flyers with information on the front and a letter on the back. Please have your child address the letter and sign it, then you may send it to their grandparents! Please feel free to make as many copies of the flyer as you need. We will also send everyone the PDF of the flyer via Schoolworx.

Spirit Wear Reminder

Students are permitted to wear their spirit-wear on Fridays! Spirit-wear is any item purchased through the school with the ECS logo on it. Elementary girls should wear their spirit-wear over their jumpers.

Make-up Picture Day

If your child was absent for picture day this week, make-up day is Monday, November 4.
