NEWSLETTER – OCTOBER 9, 2020

Jog-a-thon Fundraiser!

Today was the last day to turn in donations for the Jog-a-thon! We will be counting up everyone's totals early next week and announcing the winners in a special rally! We are excited to announce our grand total!

Schedule Changes Next Week

There is no school this Monday, October 12, due to Columbus Day!

School will start at 9:00 AM on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday next week (10/13-10/15) due to the EBT Fall Revival. Early care will still open at 7:30 AM on those days.

EBT Fall Revival

Emmanuel Baptist Temple will be hosting a Fall Revival next week on October 11-14 at 7:00 PM each night, and all ECS families are invited to attend. We especially hope to see everyone at the service on Tuesday, October 13, at 7:00 PM, as it is ECS Night! Miss Messer has been working on an exciting song for the elementary students to sing during the service, so we hope that everyone who is able to will be in attendance. This is not a mandatory event, but we strongly encourage everyone to attend!

*Elementary students should wear their school uniform to sing on Tuesday and should sit in the front right section of the auditorium when they arrive. They may sit with their parents after they sing.

Half Day of School

Tuesday, October 20, is the last day of the first quarter, which means that we will be dismissing the students at 12:00 PM that day! We do this at the close of each quarter, so that the teachers can focus on getting their students' grades finalized.

Report Cards

First quarter report cards will be sent out via Schoolworx on Friday, October 23! As a reminder, report cards must be signed online by typing your name in the signature box no later than Friday, October 30. Please ask the office if you have any questions about that.

Student Council

The 7th-12th grade students will be voting on the Student Council Members on Wednesday, 10/14!
