THE GUEST HOUSE

JALALUDDIN RUMI

This being human is a guest house.
Every morning a new arrival.

A joy, a depression, a meanness,
Some momentary awareness comes
As an unexpected visitor.

Welcome and entertain them all!
Even if they're a crowd of sorrows,
Who violently sweep your house
Empty of its furniture,

Still, treat each guest honorably.
He may be clearing you out
For some new delight.

Meet them at the door laughing,
And invite them in.

Be grateful for whoever comes,
Because each has been sent
As a guide from beyond.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

We're off to a great start! Its been good to have everyone back and to see our students getting settled into another school year. One of the things I enjoy most is seeing our students grow throughout the year---not only in the classroom, but in their friendships, their character, and their walk with the Lord. I'm thankful for our teachers and staff who invest in them each day and for our parents who support us along the way. We have a lot to look forward to this year, and I'm excited to see what God has in store for ECS. Thanks for being part of our school family. Let's have a great year, Conquerors!

SCRIPTURE CORNER

1 Corinthians 3:13 “Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.”

1 Cor. 3:13 talks about how on judgment day, your actions will “go through a fire” and will reveal the intentions behind them. People, even Christians today, choose to base their actions off of what the world’s standards are, but the Bible says that our actions should be based off of God’s will instead of our own (1 Peter 1:7), and that He should be the filter for all your actions before you make your decision to do anything.
